About your artist

- Angela Jane

I have been in the bridal & editorial makeup space for almost a decade now! Time truly flies when you're following your passion!

My journey began in the realm of editorial makeup, where I earned my Diploma of Specialists Makeup Services for Film & Television at ACMUSE Sydney. With my signature style focused on vibrant-looking skin, it came without a surprise that after a few years of creating bold looks for the camera, I felt drawn to delve deeper into the art of beauty... So, I attained my Diploma in Beauty Therapies at AABT Rockdale, Sydney. Armed with a wealth of knowledge, I knew I could now offer my clients and radiant brides-to-be an even more tailored experience... My mission is simple: to ensure that every client and bride-to-be steps into their moment feeling nothing short of AMAZING. I pride myself in my malleable artistry skills, product knowledge and an in depth understanding of the skin within to help bring my clients vision to life.

Being entrusted by so many incredible brides is truly a blessing. I understand that your wedding day is one of life's greatest milestones—a day filled with love, joy, and unforgettable moments. You deserve nothing but the best, and I am honored to be a part of your journey. So here's to you, sending waves of love and excitement your way as we create the bridal look of your dreams!

"For me, this craft is so much more than just makeup—it's about transformation. I feel incredibly lucky to help my beautiful brides and amazing clients become the best version of themselves. It's not just about the look; it's about creating lasting memories. Being able to bring my clients' visions to life truly brings me so much joy."

The Bridal Trial

To ensure you achieve the exact look you desire for your wedding I highly recommend organizing a trial.

This one on one time will allow us to collaborate on ideas about your look, go through any inspiration images, apply it to the skin so you can see how it will look on the day and also make any changes along the way to get it just right. We also will have time to organize your bridal party's look as well!

Having a trial gives you the piece of mind knowing that you will look exactly how you envisioned on your big day! As I always say to my brides, the less things you need to think about on the day the better!

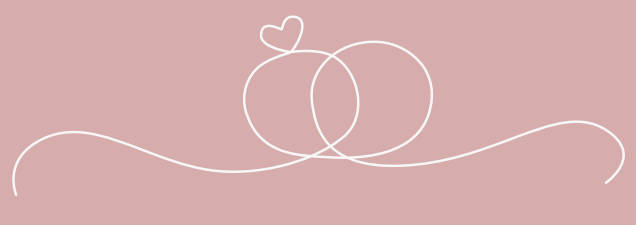

Cost for a trial is:
$200 (1.5hr - 2hr service)

If you also require a trial for your bridal party members please make note in your enquiry with exact numbers to get a unique quote.

Simona ★★★★★

“...from the moment I booked her she was personable, bubbly, kind and professional. She was very communicative, which is 100% what a bride needs and appreciates.

She was such a vibe for both my Hens night and Wedding. Happy, smiling and good energy. On top of that she nailed my make up and took my feedback from our trial positively and nailed my vision for the wedding day itself. Most importantly I felt beautiful and myself on the day, due to her amazing make up skills! Thank you Angela!”

Namitha ★★★★★

“Angela made our wedding prep so easy, fun, stress free and friendly. My trial included 3 children sitting all over me, and it was just no hassle for her. I asked for changes on my wedding day and it was just so easy. I highly recommend Angela's services. I loved my look, as did my four bridesmaids and my Mum. Thank you Angela!”

“Gosh where do I even start!!?? Angela is AMAZING!! Not only did she go above and beyond from the moment I booked with her to make sure I had all the information I needed leading up to my big day! But also came with the biggest smile on her face ready to do her thing! She was so beautiful and warming! It felt as though I had known her forever and not just meeting for the first time! Angela is incredibly talented! She knew that both my mother and mother in-law didn't want anything too over the top and worked with them to ensure they felt amazing! She knew I wanted a bold eye but to still look natural and she smashed it out of the park!! I've never felt more beautiful!! I could not possibly recommend this lady any more!!!

“Angela did my makeup for myself and my bridesmaids over the weekend for my wedding and we have nothing but positive things to say, from the makeup trial to the big day Ang has been so helpful and friendly with the many questions I had. She did our makeup so flawlessly and it was better than we could of ever imagined, even on the day I asked for a few changes from the trial and she was more than happy to work with me to give me exactly what I wanted. We were all over the moon with the makeup Angela did and would 1000x recommend her to anyone, we will definitely be going back on any special occasion we may have.

Thank you so much for being such a massive part of my wedding day ❤️”
